

Press Release – Kolcraft Enterprises Steps into Playtime... Again!
Tiny Steps Too 2-in-1 Activity Walker Available Now.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Kolcraft Enterprises Inc. Releases Tiny Steps Too 2-in-1 Activity Walker as a Sequel to the Popular Tiny Steps Activity Walker

Chicago — Step into playtime with the new Tiny Steps Too 2-in-1 Activity Walker by Kolcraft. Cute and colorful toys accompany baby along their walking journey – starting in a seated position and growing into a walk-behind feature.

Kolcraft originally brought this unique 2-in-1 feature to the baby market with the Tiny Steps Activity Walker, but now the family-owned business is taking the iconic walker one step further.

The new development features a sleeker look with thin metal frames and exterior bumpers to prevent scuffing on walls or furniture. Other popular features from the original walker such as a machine-washable seat pad and easy-clean child tray have also been added to the Tiny Steps Too.

“The original Tiny Steps Activity Center has done well for us,” Kolcraft’s Vice President of Sales Chris Hering said. “This new addition has the same great features, but with a more contemporary style. I think the development team did a great job of honoring the original concept [with the Tiny Steps Too] while bringing a modern twist to the product and the company."

The Tiny Steps Too 2-in-1 Activity Walker is currently available at Kolcraft.com and Amazon.com.
